

A Diary of the fieldwork I propose

(this is not yet a complete programme)

Tuesday 9.30 The UK Pub- we will interview a publican

2.30 British Ways to God – we interview Univ Catholic Chaplain

Wednesday 9.20 British Ways of Dying (In Faversham- Mario's house)

11.00 British Ways of Schooling Visit to poshies' Secondary School

1.30 A Hungarian refugee's view of UK

2.30 British Ways of Housing or "do I own my house?"

(all this in Faversham- 9 miles from Canterbury)

Thurs: Breathing, processing, reading, a touch of theory.

Friday 10.30: British Way of Neighbouring

Monday 9.00 Gender, class and race, with Noreen

Tues : Being 18 on these Islands- you will be interviewing a pair of late teenagers about how they see themselves and society.

Wednesday: 9.30 The CITIZENS ADVICE BUREAU

I would love to run this course more responsively to your interests, but, practically speaking, visits need fixing ahead of your coming.

I hope you enjoy this course as much as I hope and intuit I shall.

Mario

