Dear Mario,

This is the first morning of you out of the depressive shell. You seem to have proper self assertion and wish to give out, take in and be with. How did this group engineer this change? How did you manage to let them play on you as an instrument.

You feel like handling, doing, grasping being with. You talked Fred to the and needed her differently. It is now going to be fantastic. You access your books, others' ideas, all of this is splendid. You want to share, to give out.

You are affecting L positively and blowing some life into her.
