

Dear Everybody,

I hope you can
manage to {make out} my {awful
decipher} {dreadful}

{script
handwriting}. Please {try
have a go}. Yes,

S I appreciate your {problem
dilemma}

in describing your Dad: on the one hand he is an ~~angry~~ angry, fierce person
and on the other hand you love and respect him greatly. I am {pleased glad
happy}

to learn that you are enjoying this class, S. ., I feel good about you.

P. , who is one of the regulars at
"The George" pub has given me some {stuff

information} on a Japanese China

Company. I {like Peter
am fond of Peter}

S. — , you are very right to be greedy for English books and films. Nice to know your room is {messy / untidy / chaotic}!

So, A. — , though you have always lived in Croatia, your mother comes from Poland, from Warsaw, to be precise. You say that your parents met up in Poland. Fascinating / Really interesting } to discover that you {founded / started} a youth magazine in your home town. What kind of stuff did you include in it?

I'd like you to write a letter to the whole group about your "Don't sit down" work at the local radio station. I am pretty sure loads of us } will be interested (3)

plenty of us } (after minor)
in this.

Hey, K — I really don't { follow } when you say the $ is understand } getting weaker. Am I wrong in thinking it is the world's { strongest } { most buoyant }

{ currency? } ~~I strongly~~ I strongly
money

disagree with your statement that
"The Japanese age has finished in the World". On the contrary I think we are living the { dusk } of the { twilight }
"U.S. day" in the World. Please explain
why you think Japan is { on the decline } { declining. }

S. — , you mention that your father is around my age and that his meetings or meetings or meetings make you worry about his health. Does he show any signs of {ill-health
 illness
 sickness} ? Maybe working hard

is his way of staying healthy. I know it would not be good for me to slow down.

S. — , you really do come from a large family with 7 half-brothers and 3 half-sisters! You mention that you are the eldest of your mother's children though she was your Dad's second wife, whom he {married} after his first one died.
 {wed

You say your { spouse } is back home, because she has not yet finished her { undergraduate } studies. { college }

S — , I am hoping your next letter will ~~not~~ creep over from page 1 to page 2.

^M it is good that you will ask your father for { precise } { accurate } details of his job when you next { call } { ring } him up.

Have you changed your mind about what you want to be since you came over here?

Being { abroad } { in a foreign place } is quite a { big } { major } experience.

I stand corrected, M. . . :

I realise that your mother tongue is Galician, and not Spanish, ~~despite~~

{ despite the fact that } although } you are fully bi-lingual. However it is interesting that you write Spanish more fully and fluently than Galician. Our group seems to be coming together { fairly well } now.

{ reasonably well }

C. — , I really like the way you write. Your expression in English is very { graphic } . You { vivid }

write: "My mother ~~stoppy~~ stopped my sister and me from fighting with her enormous voice."

I'd like to do an exercise with the group around the whole area of brothers and sisters fighting like cat and dog. I know I haven't really properly answered you letter - yours was the bottom of my pile and I feel

{ a bit } loved. Forgive me.
{ a wife }
