

So..... what does make a good teacher? ! ! ! ! !

12

J and A's classes decided what makes a good teacher.

A good teacher :

- is faster than a speeding bullet
- doesn't swear in front of (or at) students
- is nice to everyone
- is like a friend
- isn't too strict
- is easy going (but not too much!)
- is funny but keeps the class in order.
- understands and respects students
- deserves to be respected by students
- is responsible, patient, kind and considerate
- is encouraging and supportive
- is helpful flexible and cares about students
- is enthusiastic, dynamic, active (but not hyper)
- is interesting and gives interesting classes.
- enjoys teaching and does it with all his heart.
- enjoys learning and does it with all his heart.
- doesn't let his private life affect his attitude to his class.
- explain things to all students, not only good ones.
- doesn't set too much homework.
- doesn't set test of uncovered / too difficult material.
- doesn't teach too much grammar (language teachers only)
- doesn't get angry when a student corrects him.
- talks less than students (language teachers especially)
- incorporates games in lessons.
- is involved in outside classroom activities.
- should be clean with nice teeth.
- should not have bad breath nor spit while speaking
- doesn't hit nor is cruel to kids.
- doesn't throw missiles, eg. shoes, duste nor keys at students
- listens

..... and a good student

IS THIS
YOU....

The best student:

- talks the most
- has good ideas
- participates
- is well behaved
- respects the rest of
- shows enthusiasm
- doesn't make a mess
- listens
- tries to learn
- asks questions
- doesn't give up
- learns from his mistakes
- is polite
- active (not hyper)
- amusing / funny

The Cranbrook
Star Student